Deposition - DIANA HAMILTON BOWRON, March 24, 1964, 6 H 134-9.

Questioning by Arlen Specter, Asst. Counsel, Warren Commission

Miss Bowron is an emergency room nurse at Parkland Hospital. She took a stretcher to the emergency entrance and helped with Kennedy throughout. On p.136 she is asked if she saw a wound any place on the President's body. She replied negatively. No one could, for his clothes covered the other wound, as Specter knew. Four newspaper stories are introduced as exhibits. They are not printed here, nor is it possible to tell if or where they are printed.
